

The world leader in ironing for 60 years and based in North of Italy has enthusiastically reconfirmed its presence at TEXPROCESS 2022

Once again in Macpi booth you can find information and solutions for all machines such as ironing tables, automatic units for thermo-fusing, loading and unloading system, complete line for the intermediate and final finishing of jackets, coats, jeans, knitwear, trousers, shirts, automatic machines for stitch-free applications and special units for industrial laundries.

Specifically Macpi have presented the new seam sealing machine 336.59T with height adjustment of the working station and motorized rollers with independent speed and differential effect and the machine 389.20 for shirt ironing it is an electropneumatic dummy for the simultaneous ironing of shirts body, shoulders and sleeves.

Macpi is happy with the results of the Texprocess fair and the international turnout of customers and distributors.

As usual, the focus of Macpi projects is on fully automated units capable of considerably reducing manpower and consumption; Outlining new standards to be achieved and aiming for excellence have always been the company's guidelines. Relying on a solid and prepared sales network with twenty-year experience and a punctual and efficient assistance service, Macpi is able to follow and satisfy every need by working both for and with the customer. The after-sales service is another aspect that has always distinguished the company, thanks to a young, dynamic and well-trained staff that trains operators and technicians in order to achieve maximum results in terms of production and quality. Thanks to constant work over the years, Macpi reaches a cutting-edge goals in the machines studies and development. A loyal partner who works in your interest, in any case.

Circle # 55 on Reader Service Card

389.20 for shirt ironing

New seam sealing machine 336.59T